Routing every request to the right specialized model (routing decision tree, early exit) only ONE model is selected per request (early exit on a match) policy: capability first, then cost/SLO, then general fallback.