Routing every request to the right specialised model (sequential cascade) only ONE model is selected per request (early exit on a match) policy: capability first, then cost/SLO, then general fallback.