

Where inference computation and data movement actually live capacity grows, speed drops, distance grows not every component shown — the gradient makes compute, bandwidth, capacity and interconnect distinct constraints